Cal Trammel shot Renfro Creekmore in Whitley.

Somerset will more than likely have ring fair this year.

J. C. Miller is dying at Richmond of cirrhosis of the liver.

Eubanks and Level Green are now connected by telephone.

Dan Owens and Joe Gragg broke jail at London and made good their escape.

Powell is a new post office in Jackson county and C. M. Powell is postmaster.

The Danville News will enlarge to eight pages on Fridays. The Advocate has done so for some time.

G. M. Workman, deputy ellor for Taylor county, was killed by a shot from his pistol, which he dropped.

The Laurel county grand jury reported the jail unit and unsafe and recommended the building of a new one.

The amount of realty and personally owned by the white people of Harrodsburg is $1,089,883. The colored people own $55,000.

Centre beat Central University at Danville Saturday 14 to 1 in a fast ball game in which there were no unpleasant features.

Middlesboro will have a fair and midway again this year. The date will probably be sometime in August. A half mile track is being built.

Milton Kendall and his son William, were given five years each for the murder of Eugene Cassell in Jessamine county. Charles Kendall, a younger son, was acquitted.

At his preliminary trial at Richmond Jerry Fowler, of Paint Lick, charged with conspiracy with Henry Hockaday, colored, to waylay and assassinate his rival in love, James Butler, was acquitted.

Gov. Beckham pardoned Pleas Hardy, of Knox county, who has served five years of a 10-year sentence, on recommendation of the prison physician, who states that Hardy is dying of consumption.

The Kentucky Telephone Association met at Winchester and 15 independent companies were represented. The following officers were elected: David Prewitt, of Pine Grove, president; A. B. Bastin, of Crab Orchard, vice president; W. W. Longmoor, of Frankfort, treasurer; James Marcet, of Mt. Vernon, secretary; D. L. Pendleton, of Winchester, attorney; R. V. Bishop, of Cynthiana, D. S. Baldwin, of Richmond, and D. L. Pendleton, of Winchester, executive committee. Arrangements were made to connect the central and northern counties in the State by metallic circuits, and this work will be carried out this year. The lines of the independent companies will be pushed towards Louisville, Cincinnati, Knoxville, and other large cities on or near the borders of the State. Uniform toll rates and metallic circuits on all lines will be insisted on and a mutual interchange of business will be made, while the companies will still retain their present status of independence.

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

The meeting at Rev. W. S. Grinstead's church at Taylorsville closed with five additions.

Mrs. Geo. S. Savage, wife of the well known Bible society agent, died at Winchester, aged 78.

London has extended an invitation for the next State association of the Baptist church to be held there.

The new Methodist church at Lebanon Junction was dedicated by Rev. W. K. Piner, D. D., of Hopkinsville.

The papers announced that Miss Helen Gould would attend the Second Presbyterian church at Louisville Sunday and a great crowd gathered there only to be disappointed. Anticipating the crowd, Miss Gould went to the Warren Memorial church.

3:00-3:30, "The Supreme Motive," B. J. Pinkerton.

3:30-4:00, "Co-laborers with God," G. W. Mills.

It is hoped there will be in attendance representatives from every congregation in the county. Public cordially invited.

FRANK W. ALLEN, J. G. LIVINGSTON, Program Committee.

The Stanford INTERIOR JOURNAL, easily the best semi-weekly published anywhere, has found the growing demand on its space so great that it must enlarge to seven columns. It is a model of beauty in its new form, and, as always, is chock full of news and bright editorials—Cynthiana Democrat.

CLARENCE COLEMAN'S CONTRIBUTION.

BACOLOR, LUZON, P. I., April 28.—

I am glad to be able to again write from Bacolor. We have now been stationed here nearly two months, longer than at any other place on the island.

I can't say yet whether we will stay here during the rainy season or not, as there are so many rumors of us leaving. We are liable to get orders to pack up any day, but not for the States, no such good luck. The volunteers will leave the islands for America next spring and not a day sooner. In fact we have about one chance out of 10 of seeing the States in 1900, to nine against.

When I first came over here, I was of the opinion that an early ending of the war would have something to do with sending the volunteers home, but I have long since changed my opinion. On the other hand the war is far from over. Fighting is going on daily in some parts of the archipelago. Of course the backbone of the insurrection is crushed, and it is dying, but dying hard. I fear it will be many months yet before small bands of white men will be safe in the interior of Northern Luzon, as well as some other parts.

The wise leaders of the insurrection are awakening to their folly and are coming in. Only the other day an insurgent major came to our captain's quarters and gave himself up and asked to take the oath of allegiance to the United States government. Yesterday a native out in the country sent for our lieutenant and said he had a present for him. The lieutenant went and what did he bring back but two Mausers and three Remingtons, all of which were serviceable. If all of the insurgents would only do this, it would save a lot of useless bloodshed on both sides.

Some seem to think that the enemy is preparing to make a stand during the rainy season. They may, but last rainy seasons showed them that the Americans could get around just as spry as they could, even in water up to their shoulders.

It is still hike, hike, hike. But most all the hiking is at night, as it has become almost impossible to round up an insurgent or a band of men in daylight. Divisions and brigades in a military sense of the words, have been done away with in the archipelago. Instead of "Department of the Pacific and 8th Army Corps," it is now "Division of the Philippines." The 41st regiment instead of being in the 2d Brig. 2d Div. 8th Army Corps, as it formerly was, is now in the "Fifth district of Northern Luzon." The archipelago has been divided and subdivided into districts.

We are soon to draw cork helmets which we are to wear instead of hats. They are said to be much cooler than the regulation hat.

Since my last letter "Holy Week" has come and gone. Holy week precedes Easter Sunday. Some of the antics of these ignorant natives during Holy week are very amusing to the average foreigner, such as their impersonations of Christ, the Virgin Mary, &c., the binding of themselves from head to foot with vines and thorns and then cutting themselves so that blood may flow freely. They would then go out in the middle of the road and lie all day. This represented the "Resurrection." Some of these same religious fanatics will hold his neighbor for a few pesos.

If I had been at home I most certainly would have attended the grand reunion of the old and gray-haired veterans of the Lost Cause at Louisville. I regret very much that I was unable to attend.

Well, I trust by this time that Kentucky's political war has been amicably settled and that Gov. Beckham and cabinet have been peaceably installed and things are working nicely as if nothing had ever happened. I know the government affairs of the old Commonwealth will be wisely and economically administered under the guidance and leadership of "Cripps" Beckham, as he showed his 'metal' and his sterling worth, not only as a statesman but a friend to the common people while he was speaker of the lower House of the Legislature.

I see in the papers that you are to have a total eclipse of the sun May 28. If it would only strike these regions I think the war would be ended for the natives would never stop running until they pitched head foremost into the sea, judging from their antics at seeing a bicycle.

THINKS CAMPBELL PREVARICATED.

—W. P. Walton is the "boss" editor all right enough, and he has a nose for news whose dimensions cast a shadow over Tom Davis' nasal appendage in all its noon-day splendor, but we do not believe in ascribing to him, or anybody else, virtues that he cannot possibly possess. The Somerset Journal oversteps the bounds of probability when it says Walton knows the exact number of leads and quads in the composing rooms and can locate the office hatchet, day or night, by a simple mental calculation. No man has a head great enough to grapple with the hatchet proposition, and Walton need not pose as an exception.—Cynthiana Democrat.

Monticello, Wayne County.

Forty-three men were mustered into the State Guard here by Lieut. Col. U. S. Henry. F. R. Harrison was elected captain; S. T. Sanders first lieutenant and W. Wood Kendrick, second lieutenant.

John Oatts, Sr., has received plans for the new bank and advertised for bids. He hopes to have it completed by fall and is working accordingly.

The building will be of polished stone with plate glass windows and a stone room adjoining, with three rooms above. J. G. Hardin has the foundation and frame work of his dwelling completed. W. P. Woodridge has about completed a five-room dwelling on the Elk Valley, road to which he will shortly move. Mrs. Nettie Duncan is visiting Mrs. Fox Miller at Mill Springs. Miss Eva Jones is at home again after an absence of several months in Lexington, where she took a course in education. Sam Miller, of Mill Springs, made a flying trip here this week. Misses Amy Ramsey, Fayette Miller, Mattie Simpson and Mrs. W. S. Baker, Joe Duncan and Trigg Tuttle have returned from Louisville. George Backer has returned from a short trip to Cincinnati. The Ladies Aid Society will be entertained by Miss Cella Kendrick this week. Misses Edna Ramsey and Geneva Cook are visiting their uncle, Judge Wayne Cook, at Corvdon, Ind. T. J. Oatts has returned from Louisville and will spend the summer at Valley View, his elegant residence in Elk Springs Valley. Misses Lillian and Mayme Phillips are visiting their uncle, Dr. H. A. Phillips, in Lexington. Leonidas Ragan, a 1900 graduate of State College, returned home last week. Mr. H. L. Oatts, after a pleasant visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Davis, of Lexington, has returned home. Miss Emma Ramsey is visiting her brother, Clyde, in Lexington. A. M. Williams, of Cooper, spent several days in town. Clark Bros' show is advertised for our city this week. A small crowd attended quarterly court and there were very few cases on the docket. A. H. Hope, with the assistance of G. D. Combs, sent out by the Christian State Board, is conducting a series of discourses at Mill Springs. Seven converts have so far united with the church. Bessie and Susie Lanier, graduates of Hamilton, spent several days with relatives in Danville, on their way home last week.

NOMINATES JAMES D. BLACK.

JUNCTION CITY, June 12.—When God in His infinite wisdom created this heavenly land of ours and clothed it in green grasses and verdant foliage, I am satisfied He made Kentucky the garden spot thereof and when He saw proper to people it, He did it with fair women and brave men. I am also satisfied that while looking to the distant future He predestined that it should be ruled and governed by the honest yeomanry of the country, (democrats). The time is now close at hand for us to make a choice for a candidate for governor. While I can find no fault whatever to the names mentioned in your valuable paper as candidates, I feel that we should use some discretion in our selection. I therefore nominate for governor Hon. James D. Black, of Barbourville. I feel in doing this, we show to the good people of the 11th district we recognize them as our friends and neighbors. Of course when I say good people of the 11th district I exclude those in jail and at Indianapolis (and I am fearful when the final wind up comes will be in 4-1) indicted for the assassination of one of the noblest sons of Kentucky.

With Bryan for president and Black for governor, we will have the world by the tail and a down hill pull.

M. V. OWENS.

Mr. J. H. Miller, of your city, and Squire I. M. Myers had readable articles in the Record last week.

In seven months Mr. E. W. Harris has sold $68 worth of milk and butter from one cow, besides having plenty for his family. Next.

Judge Joe S. Robinson bought of G. S. Gaines the Miller lot on Danville Avenue, for $900. He will begin the erection of a handsome residence at once.

The declaratory contest for a $100 diamond ring, will be deferred to some date in July, on account of other attractions here, on the date formerly announced.

T. S. Elkin has gone to Cincinnati. Mrs. I. S. Wesley is visiting in Danville. Rev. Thomas Bush, of Texas, and Wade Bush, of St. Louis, are with their parents.

Jailer Ross' saddle horse has a long, thick, well-developed mustache on his upper lip, larger and better cultivated than Al Warren's ever was, and he seems to be proud of it. This is literally true.

Judge Joe S. Robinson has sold his beautiful farm of 215 acres two miles from town, on the Danville pike, to Eld. Jesse Walden at $60. Mr. G. A. Swinebroad sold 35 stock cattle weighing 750 pounds, to Joseph Burnsides at $33 and the same number, same weight to Ben Keller at same price.

Miss Kittie Mason has gone to Hillsboro, O., to visit her sister, Mrs. H. N. Faulconer. Mr. H. A. B. Marks, bury, as superintendent of the Christian church Sunday school, has issued a circular letter to parents that should be adopted by every Sunday school. J. C. Sier has moved to the Sanders property on Lexington street, which was vacated by Mr. H. C. Carlton, he having moved to Danville, his departure being the cause of much regret among his many friends here. Mr. R. H. Batson is at Dripping Springs.

The true statement of the difficulty between Jesse Arnold a railroad conductor, is this: Arnold bought a scalper's ticket in Louisville, to Texas. It was good to June 15. The agent at Louisville stamped the ticket and checked the baggage to Texas. A conductor gave permission to ride on it from Louisville to Lexington. The conductor on the Q & C would not recognize it and trouble arose in which he received a slight flesh wound, ranging upward, which indicated that it was the result of a shot from a pistol when it fell to the floor, one being found afterward. The ticket is a genuine one and was good for the passage, as the road can not receive something for nothing. Hon. R. H. Tomlinson will sue the company for damages. Arnold says he did not shoot him.

Senator G. T. Farris called the democratic mass convention to order on Saturday and explained the object of the meeting. Hon. R. H. Tomlinson was made chairman and R. L. Davidson secretary. Joe E. Robinson, T. B. Robinson, Letcher Orsley, J. I. Hamilton and Senator Farris constituted the committee on resolutions, who reported in favor of the principles of the National platform of 1896, recommending that the delegates vote as a unit on all questions, a majority of the delegation controlling. No instructions were given for anybody, but the delegates will all vote for Hons. Jas. B. McCreary and J. C. S. Blackburn for delegates at-large to the national convention. The delegates are E. H. Walker, Jesse Sweeney, Jr., T. B. Robinson, George Higginbotham, G. T. Farris, J. B. Buibles; alternates are Ike Dunn, Jr., R. L. Davidson, H. B. Robinson, R. H. Tomlinson, J. M. Farra and J. I. Hamilton.

About 90 Knights of Pythias visited the district meeting here Friday and Garrard lodge did nicely in entertaining. A large crowd attended the open session at the opera house, where eloquence and music freely and sweetly flowed, enchanting the audience. The addresses by Hon. R. H. Tomlinson, J. T. Horner, grand chancellor, and Rev. J. C. Massee, with some vocal music by Mrs. Juliet Rogers, Miss Eliza Lusk, Judge J. C. Hemphill and J. M. Farra, accompanied by Miss May Hughes, made the occasion exceedingly delightful and the audience showed its appreciation by frequent applause. Mr. Joe E. Robinson presided with an abundance of dignity. Landlord Fisinger had prepared a bountiful and delicious feast at the Garrard, banquet continuing from 10 P. M. to 2 A. M. The many responses made to toasts given out by G. B. Swinebroad were apt and brilliant. The only inconsistency was in asking Capt. Herndon to respond to "Tell the Truth," but for his experience in that line he did nicely. The occasion will be long remembered and our people were interested in the promulgation of the eternal principles which are advocated by that noble order.

MASS CONVENTION.

DECLARES FOR BRYAN, INSTRUCTS FOR M'CREARY AND HELM AND ENDORSES GILBERT.

The democrats of Lincoln county met in goodly numbers at the court-house Saturday afternoon and the county chairman, John W. Holmes, being absent, Hon. R. C. Warren explained the situation and nominated Mr. George L. Penny for chairman. He was elected; accepted the honor and called for nominations for secretary. On motion of W. S. Burch, Esq., W. P. and E. C. Walton were chosen and then the chairman named Messrs. W. G. Welch, R. C. Warren, O. J. Crow and M. F. North a committee on resolutions. The gentlemen retired to a jury room and on their return presented the following through Mr. North:

RESOLVED by the democracy of Lincoln county, in mass-meeting assembled at Stanford, Saturday, June 9th:

1st. That there is but one name to even be considered at Kansas City in July for the leadership of the democratic party. That proud place is conceded to Wm. J. Bryan, and has been won for him, not more by the splendor of his intellect and character, than by his devotion to the old party truth and doctrine, and by his profound and passionate fidelity to the side and cause of the plain people.

2d. We appoint as our delegates to the convention, which meets at Louisville, Ky., June 14th, for the purpose of sending delegates to the National democratic convention at Kansas City, the following named gentlemen: W. G. Welch, R. C. Warren, G. B. Cooper, A. C. Dunn, J. M. Alverson, George D. Weatherford, W. P. Walton and J. T. Emory.

And as alternates the following named gentlemen, J. B. Paxton, W. E. Perkins, W. L. McCarty, J. H. Carter, O. J. Crow, M. G. Reynolds, M. S. Baughman and R. L. Hubble.

3rd. In recognition of the personal worth and gallant party service of our countyman, Hon. Harvey Helm, our delegates are instructed to present him to the 8th Congressional district for the place of district delegate to the National convention at Kansas City, and to use, diligently and unceasingly, every honorable effort to secure his appointment.

4th. The democracy of Lincoln has long had occasion to know and appreciate the conservatism, the sagacity and the loyalty of Hon. James B. McCreary, of Madison, and our delegates are further instructed to cast the vote of Lincoln county for that gentleman for delegate from the State at large.

5th. We heartily ratify and endorse the nomination for representative in Congress from this district of Hon. G. Gilbert, and promise him our united and cordial support.

The resolutions were adopted by a hearty "aye" and the convention adjourned. GEO. L. PENNY, Chm'n. W. P. AND E. C. WALTON, Sec's.

IN MEMORIAM.

It has pleased Almighty God to visit our town again and take one of our best citizens, who fought the battles of life for many years, William Cook, who departed this life June 7, 1900. He was ill for five or more months, but had been bothered with stomach and liver troubles for a long while; still he would strive and do what he could for his family, who was always looked after by him in the best way possible until he was compelled to take his bed. At first his family and friends thought he would recover, but gradually this hope was dispelled and he lingered and grew weaker and weaker. He was cheerful when his severe miseries would die off, and would often express his willingness to die and said this was clear.

He was a bright member of the United Baptist church and was always found trying to do something to promote the cause of Christ. His funeral was preached by Rev. G. W. Bolling, his pastor, and the many lovely flowers witnessed by the eyes of the immense crowd, which was present to pay the last token of respect to our beloved brother, tell to his bereaved family that he was much loved by both white and colored and his death was much regretted.

He was a member of two lodges, the U. B. F. and the Rhoads Lackey Post, and one in whom we could rely upon as one who could always be found at his post. Therefore be it

RESOLVED that in his death we have lost a valuable member and his family a dutiful husband and loving father.

RESOLVED, That the sympathy of our Post and Circle be conveyed to the wife and family of our deceased brother, committing them in this hour of their bereavement to the kindly consolation of Him who doeth all things well.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and spread upon the minutes.

J. W. Lackey, B. N. Hays, Abraham Shanks, committee.

WANTED—We want a few more good agents of either sex to take orders, good wages, permanent position, exclusive territory. Address Box 134, Danville, Ky.

HON. G. G. GILBERT

Of Shelby County.

THE Hon. D. G. Colson seems to have as many lives as a Thomas cat. Bullets nor other death dealing contrivances seem to have no effect on him and he miraculously comes out of runaways and other accidents unscathed. While driving at Middlesboro Saturday his horse took fright and became unmanageable. After running about half a mile the buggy struck a telegraph pole and was turned over. Strange to relate, Mr. Colson didn't receive a scratch.

THE pot is boiling all over the State. Brown men have seen the error of their way and are returning to their first love. Four of them were put on the Mercer county delegation Saturday to the Louisville convention.

AN effort was made to keep Mercer county from sending a McCreary delegation to Louisville, but it failed most ingloriously. The anti-McCreary delegates didn't get enough votes to count.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Colorado democrats instructed for Bryan.

Boyle county sent an uninstructed delegation of good democrats.

Shelby democrats instructed for Editor Charles M. Lewis for district delegate.

J. R. Keene, the New York sporting man, has bet $25,000 on Bryan's election.

The National committee of the gold democratic party has been called to meet at Indianapolis July 25.

The republicans are making much ado over carrying Oregon, which they claim is an endorsement of McKinley's administration.

Knox county endorsed James D. Black and scored the republican assassins. J. C. Jones was instructed for district delegate.

Mercer county did not instruct her delegates. Strong resolutions against Taylor and his crowd and Mount for harboring them were adopted.

The recommendation of Capt. Calhoun that the Taylor militia be paid for services will not be carried out by Gov. Beckham, and ought not to be.

The Connecticut democratic convention at Waterbury endorsed W. J. Bryan for president and pledged support to the platform to be adopted in Kansas City.

Democrats in Wayne and Russell counties instructed for Blackburn, McCreary, McQuown and Poyntz for delegates at-large, and for W. R. Cress for delegate from the 11th district.

Laurel endorsed James D. Black for governor, and instructed for McCreary, Grey Woodson, Louis McQuown and Blackburn for delegates at large and D. R. Hammock for district delegate.

Twenty-four States have so far held democratic conventions, and Bryan has instructions from 22. He lacks only 30 votes of a majority in the National convention, and but 184 of the two thirds necessary to a nomination.

Speaking of "confessions," Taylor's flight from justice and refusal to run for the office of governor are actions that speak louder than the words of Fulton, Golden and other squealing conspirators.—Louisville Times.

Anderson, Spencer and Jessamine sent uninstructed delegations; Rockcastle instructed for McCreary, Blackburn, McQuown and Geo. T. Farris for delegates at large and Harvey Helm and Willard Mitchell for district delegates.

The Washington Times says: We note with pleasure that even Kentucky republicans are beginning to sicken of the contemptible creature, Taylor, whose only friends now are the party machineists, who are shielding him from justice in Indiana. Bye and bye, we predict that even Gov. Mount will realize what a dangerous object lesson of republican contempt for law he is affording, and turn the cowardly fugitive over to the Kentucky police.

The graves of 2,200 Confederate soldiers at Camp Chase, near Columbus, O., were decorated by Federal and Confederate veterans. Gov. Nash, of Ohio, made the principal address, paying high tribute to those who fell in the Southern cause.

Six hundred letters were ground to fragments in the Brooklyn bridge pneumatic tube, the cylinder containing the mail not being started right at the Manhattan end. When the letters burst into the Brooklyn office with the rush of air, they were reduced to a pulp.

At Covington, William Burns, who claims to be a former newspaper writer of St. Louis, shot and killed an unknown man. Later, while trying to escape, Burns shot Patrolman Thomas McQuerry and leaped from the suspension bridge, 90 feet to the water, only to be arrested after swimming to a barge.

LAND AND STOCK.

August 8-10 are the Danville Fair dates.

T. C. Rankin sold to Dick Gentry a jack for $115.

E. L. King sold to Dink Wilkinson three cows at 3c.

The Laundress won a race at Newport at 100 to 1.

E. D. Hubbard sold to Garland Singleton a milk cow for $50.

S. E. Estes sold to Mrs. Bettie Rigby a harness mare for $50.

July wheat advanced 3 cents in Chicago on reports of bad crops.

Joe Kendig bought in Lincoln and Boyle 27 horses at $100 to $300.

J. B. Rout sold to Hugh McCauley, of Casey, four cotton mules for $310.

L. C. King sold to Morris Fred 100 barrels of corn at $2.65 at the crib.

J. B. Saunders bought in Garrard and Lincoln a bunch of hogs at 4c.

Jersey cow, subject to register, fine milkier, for sale S. H. Rout, Stanford.

J. C. Hays sold to Clay Arnold here yesterday 19 long yearlings at $25.50.

Three horses and three mules were killed by lightning in Simpson county.

J. T. Hackley sold to John Hollows, of Pulaski, a hornless bull calf for $50.

G. D. Boone sold yesterday a bunch of heifers at $15 and a yoke of oxen for $85.

J. K. Baughman sold to Walthen, of Marion, 26 two year-old mules at $105.

Conrad Hiatt sold here yesterday a bunch of heifers at 3c and some cows at 3c.

Plug horses are cheap. Ginsburg Bros. bought a good one yesterday for $22.50.

Scotch bred bull—Warfield bred sire and dam—for sale. J. W. Flowers, Marcellus.

John E. Madden has offered $50,000 for Henry of Navarre, but Belmont wouldn't sell him.

Year-old Berkshire boar, thoroughbred, for sale. Good one. Isaac Hubbard, Milledgeville.

J. C. Eubanks sold to J. N. Denny a mare mule for $140. David Thompson sold to same one for $115.

Josiah Anderson sold to W. B. Burton a gelding for $80 and bought of G. D. Boone a yoke of cattle for $85.

A full brother of Black Fox brought $5,500 at auction in New York. He was owned by Chinn &amp; Ferguson.

J. H. Poynter, Jr., has bought of Mrs. Mary Brinkley 345 acres of land on Buck Creek, Pulaski county, for $6,250.

Two double standard, young Mary, Polled Durhams, nine and 13-months old, both reds. A. W. Carpenter, Danville.

Lutes &amp; Co., bought 30 hogs of different parties around town at 4c, and of Thos. D. Best 15 nice fat 150-lb hogs at 4c.

F. P. Bishop sold to Eubanks Bros. a bunch of thin cows at 3.10 and to G. A. Swinebroad 53 ewes at $3.50 and 59 lambs at 5c.

A gentleman who made a little drive through the West End Friday estimates that he saw 5,000 acres of wheat. Most of it was good.

C. C. Gover sold to D. N. Prewitt 35 lambs averaging 79 pounds at 5c. W. M. Matheny sold to same 57 averaging 80 pounds at same.

Dink Wilkinson sold to J. C. Lynn seven butcher cattle at 3c to 4c and bought here yesterday four cows at 3c and a small bull for $14.

J. M. Roberts sold to D. N. Prewitt a mixed bunch of sheep at $2.75. He sold to Garrard and Lincoln county parties 90 mixed cattle at 24 to 5c.

G. C. Givens has delivered to J. C. Johnston, of Boyle, 50 lambs averaging 90 pounds at 5c. Who can beat that weight for June 5 delivery?

Thirty extra calves at $4, 170 hogs at 3.65 and 231 lambs, $4 the average, at 5 to 6c are some of the sales noted in the Winchester Democrat.

Walter Shropshire, of Oxford, sheared 504 pounds of wool from 43 sheep, being an average of 12 pounds per sheep.—Paris Kentuckian.

Lutes &amp; Co. bought of Gus McCormack 30 hogs for July delivery at 4c and of other parties 45 wethers at $3.40. They sold here yesterday six heifers at $17.

B. F. Sanders &amp; Co., shipped 300 lambs, average weight 85 pounds at 5c. This is said to be the finest early shipment of lambs ever sent from the country.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

S. P. McDowell has bought 3,500 lambs at 5 to 5c. J. J. Moore bought of W. H. Lillard 21 yearlings at $21. The Little farm of 275 acres was taken down at $44.75.—Danville News.

Judge W. M. Myers, of Casey, who with W. P. Riggins was here yesterday, tells us that grasshoppers have ruined 14 acres of grass for him, some of the ground being of clean grass as a marble yard.

D. N. Prewitt took up the following lambs at 5c last week: 52 of J. C. Pepples that averaged 73 pounds; 17 of Geo. V. Hall, averaging 82 pounds; 57 80-pounds of Wm. Matheny, and a large lot of J. E. Lynn.

Emmett McCormack sold 415 lambs at the Bourbon stock yards, Louisville, last week at 7c. He is well pleased with that market and will ship several more cars this week. The freight is no more than to Cincinnati and the "drift" is not as much.

By the will of Ella N. Amerman, widow of Representative Amerman, of Pennsylvania, $10,000 is provided for the care of two horses and a dog. The animals are to be treated with the utmost consideration, especially the horses, which are to be tenderly cared for when they are beyond the age of usefulness.

COURT DAY.—Of the 290 cattle at A. B. Florence's stock pens yesterday, not over half of them sold. The day was dull generally and buyers and sellers were far apart. About 5c was the best price realized, some good yearlings and two-year-olds bringing that figure. Heifers were slow at 3c to 4c. Some butcher stuff changed hands at 3 to 3 1/2c. The horse and mule market was also dull.

The Southern railway has abandoned the Shelbyville and Bloomfield railway, and no more trains are to be operated over it.

The St. Louis street railway strike goes from bad to worse. The record of bloodshed Sunday was the worst since the strike began, over a month ago. Four men were killed—three of them strikers—by deputy sheriffs, and three men were wounded, two of them strikers.

Quick and efficient attention to burials; elegant new hearse. Large stock of Coffins, Caskets, Bibles, etc. Up-to-date stock of Furniture always on hand. Prices right.

ONCE in a life time: Such values in ladies' slippers as we are offering. Severance & Sons. *

YESTERDAY was the duller county court day in a long time. The crowd was small and business generally off.

TO THE PEN.—Deputy Sheriff H. L. Tate of Rockcastle, passed down to Frankfort Saturday with John Mullins, who got a year for grand larceny.

NEARLY 100 operations have been successfully performed at Joseph Price Infirmary since Jan. 1. The patronage has been good all along, but the building is almost crowded now.

A CURIOSITY in the shape of 11 strawberries run into one was the production of Mr. John J. McRoberts' patch. The stems grew together and a lush nature was the result.

BESIDES four other leading fire insurance companies, I represent the Old Continental in the counties of Lincoln, Boyle and Casey. Office Lancaster Street. Phone 82. R. B. Mahony. *

THE Somerset Paragon comments on our local stating that Confederates spent more money in Louisville than the G. A. R's, but as we can't find out what Brer Hansford is driving at, we'll let him pass this time without exclamation.

A DISPATCH from Cincinnati says that Mr. B. F. Robinson, the Garrard county stock trader, has filed suit there to recover $500 he bet with W. J. Lindley, a stockyard merchant, on Goebel being finally declared governor of Kentucky.

FOUND HER COW.—Mrs. W. H. Lynch, of Wildie, writes that her ad. in this paper found her lost cow, which proved to be at Maywood. She also says that there was a shooting affair on Horse Lick the other morning. John Harrison shot and seriously wounded Ben Drew.

STRANGE PLAYMATES.—Callaway Nance, of Boyle, who was here yesterday, told us that his five-year-old son and a 35-pound turkey gobbler are the fondest playmates he ever saw. They play together from early till late and seem devoted to each other. Neither seems satisfied when they are separated.

A CRAB ORCHARD gentleman who was here Saturday, told us that his end was largely in favor of Gov. Beckham for governor, but we are still of the opinion that Hon. James D. Black will carry the county hands down. Judge Lewis has a following, but Mr. W. B. Smith's friends seem to be few and far between.

CUMMINS & MCCLARY are great advertisers. In addition to their half column in this paper, they have the columns flooded with large bills and attractive signs of a humorous character, while yesterday they displayed samples and prices of their goods in a glass case in the court-house yard that attracted much attention.

SOME sounder cut the ropes of Rev. Fagaley's camp meeting tent the other night and it blew down during one of the wind storms of last week. Fortunately services were not being held and nobody was hurt. Good crowds are attending the meeting and interesting sermons are preached daily by Mr. Fagaley and Rev. David Holtzclaw.

FIVE YEARS.—The jury in case of Eugene K. Wilson, on trial at Mt. Vernon, charged with the murder of Miss Mary Cloyd at London, by performing a criminal operation on her, gave him five years in the penitentiary. Wilson belongs to a good family and was a young lawyer of much promise. Suspension of judgment for 60 days to prepare an appeal to the court of appeals was granted.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—Mr. J. M. Roberts, of Valley Oak, who was here yesterday, told us that Matt Ellerson's house near that place was struck by lightning last week and considerable damage done it. One bolt ran down the chimney and besides severely shocking several members of the family, a dresser and other furniture in the room were torn to pieces. His family's escape from death was miraculous.

PLANTS of all kinds. O. J. Newland.

New lot ladies' kid gloves just in. J. P. Jones.

New neck wear at Cummins & McClary's.

SEE Warren & Shanks for Deering Mower and Binder Repairs.

DEERING sections and blades at low prices. Geo. H. Farris & Co.

PRESCRIPTIONS promptly and accurately filled at Craig & Hocker's.

Go to Jones' this week for a nice dress. The line goes at less than cost.

FOR SALE PRIVATELY.—My residence and store house, the latter occupied by Penny's Drug Store. J. W. Hayden.

FOR buggy and wagon tires, rims and spokes, barbed and smooth wire, all sizes, at rock bottom prices, go to Hill & Beck's.

THOSE papers that are publishing a list of Kentucky fairs are requested to include Hustonville, July 18—three days.

I will give 50c reward for the return to this office of John Lasley's checked coat lost between Walnut Flat and Rowland. Henry Westmoreland. *

THE examination of white teachers Friday and Saturday will be held in the male academy building on the hill on account of the court house being used by circuit court.

THE young people are looking forward to a great time at the hop Friday evening, when the immortal Saxton will be on hand with his superb orchestra. The gentlemen are requested to meet at the Opera House that night at 8 o'clock sharp to fill out the floor cards.

23.—While taking the census, Enumerator George A. McRoberts found 23 colored persons living in one small house belonging to T. C. Ball. By the way Mr. McRoberts will complete his labors this week, but as it is a 500 fine to give out any information about his work, he has kept mum on the subject.

In the county court yesterday, John J. McRoberts qualified as notary public, with Hon. P. M. McRoberts security, and Mrs. Maggie T. Hobbs qualified as executrix of the will of her husband, B. Y. Hobbs, which was admitted to probate. The case of M. G. Nevius' heirs against M. G. Nevius' heirs was ordered to be heard.

HONORABLE MENTION.—A friend sends us the following: Miss Mary Bradley, of Danville, graduated last week at Caldwell College, taking the highest grade in scholarship of her class of 19, her average for the two years being 95.8-10 on scale of 100. She has attended school 10 years, eight of which has been without the loss of a single day and has by her reports stood at the head of classes with an average of 94+ for the last five years.

FOUND A ROOM.—Notwithstanding the fact that Mrs. Julia Hughes and family had lived in the house seven years they did not know until it was being pulled down of a room upstairs. It was well plastered, of fairly good size and contained only a long bench, but there was no door to enter it. A small window opened at the back of the house and none of the family had sufficient curiosity or cared to go to the trouble of climbing up and looking in. What the room was ever used for or who put the bench in it is not known.

THE note case against the L. & N. at Lebanon, for unjust discrimination in coal freight rates, the specific charge being that coal was hauled cheaper for a mill firm than for the general community in which it was found guilty, gets a reversal from the court of appeals, which holds that it is not a discrimination when the coal is used in manufacturing and where the product manufactured is hauled by the road which gives the rebate. Judge Paynter delivered a dissenting opinion, which is concurred in by Judges Guffy and White, holding that the facts complained of do constitute unjust discrimination and virtually says that if the majority opinion is maintained as the law, Section 215 of the Constitution is a dead letter.

CIRCUIT COURT convened at 9 A. M. yesterday and Judge Sauley proceeded to business by swearing in Sheriff S. M. Owens and deputies, M. G. Reynolds, C. B. Owens and P. C. Miller, and selecting the following grand jurors and delivering to them a clear cut, comprehensive and comprehensible charge.

J. E. Wright, foreman, Galen Rogers, E. T. Pence, W. D. Johnson, J. H. Caldwell, Henry Leech, S. H. Gooch, Henderson Young, Frank Howard, Ed Lewis, John P. Gooch and R. G. Collier.

The petit jury is as follows: J. T. Bohon, J. B. Glickerson, G. A. Lackey, A. B. Foley, W. H. Boone, Arch Frye, W. C. Greening, Hundly Gooch, Sam Dudderar, J. P. Riffe, P. P. Nunnally, J. H. McAlister, E. D. Peyton, J. S. Owsley, Jr., J. C. McWhorter, J. C. Huston, Dink Farmer, J. H. White, Wm. Epperson, D. K. Farris, R. R. Gentry, Tim Hutchinson, John Peoples, C. F. Epperson.

The case of Lillburn Padgett for malicious wounding was set for next Tuesday. Dan Hester was acquitted for selling liquor unlawfully, but James Carter caught it for $20 for the same offense. J. Hughes was fined $20 for gaming and the case for carrying concealed weapons against Dean Smith was stricken from the docket.

In the afternoon, A. G. Coffey was acquitted on two charges of assaulting the Pitman family and drawing a pistol on them, agreement having been reached that the verdict in one case should be effective in all.

BAKING POWDER

-Absolutely Pure-

For the third of a century the standard for strength and purity. It makes the hot bread, hot biscuit, cake and other pastry light, sweet and excellent in every quality.

No other baking powder is "just as good as Royal," either in strength, purity or wholesomeness.

Many low priced, imitation baking powders are upon the market. These are made with alum, and care should be taken to avoid them, as alum is a poison, never to be taken in the food.

CHANGED THE DATE.—George D. Weatherford telephoned us yesterday that the date of the Hustonville fair had been changed to July 18-20th.

HOPKINS.—Our people will regret to hear of the death of Rev. Alexander Campbell Hopkins, who recently gave several kinetoscope entertainments here. It occurred at Louisville Sunday, where he had been sick for some time. As a Sunday School evangelist, he accomplished wonderful good and his success was generally acknowledged. He leaves a wife and four children.

FIGHT.—Weed Smith, after repeatedly dunning Harvey Watts for $2 he owed him and getting promises always to be broken, yesterday told him that he had lied to him all through the matter. Thereupon Watts struck Smith several times, some say with his fist, Smith says with a rock, cutting a big gash on his head over the ear. Watts was arrested and taken before Judge Carson. Watts claimed that Judge Carson would not give him justice and without making an affidavit, that officer transferred him to Judge Bailey, who set his case for trial Saturday and allowed him bail in $25. Mr. Smith was also arrested.

"I AM for Beckham and against any man, who is for changing the Goebel law," said Col. J. W. Guest yesterday. "If Goebel had have lived, there would not have been a word said against it by those who championed it in his life time. If it was a good law then, it is a good law now, and I am opposed to changing it just because its honored author was assassinated by the cowards at Frankfort." His son-in-law, Boyle Gill Boyle, of the Louisville Post, will please make a note of this to show his readers that he has a father in law of the true grit, who is an uncompromising, dyed-in-the-wool and a yard wide democrat, and abhors assassination and hates turncoats and hypocrites.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Henry Riddle, of Cumberland county, has just married his fourth wife and he is only 34.

George Brummitt, 23, and Miss Sarah Stephens, 18, were married at John A. Singleton's.

T. B. Cromwell, the well known Lexington correspondent, who helped work up evidence in the assassination cases, and Miss Nellie Muir, daughter of Lexington's fire chief, were married a few days ago.

Miss Pansy Hughes, daughter of Chief of Police Jumbo Hughes, of Somerset, eloped to Chattanooga with James O'Rear, a C. S. yard foreman. Hughes got on to the movement and had them arrested by telegraph at Chattanooga. While in the office of the police station they jumped out of a window and escaped. Striking for the Georgia line they were nearly to it when officers intercepted them and brought them back. Nothing daunted, O'Rear instituted habeas corpus proceedings for his would be bride, which were granted, the young lady swore she was old enough to contract marriage and the knot was tied. All's well that ends well and if "Jumbo" doesn't forgive and take them to his heart, "my children," he deserves to be reduced to the ranks and robbed of his peacock feather.

A Woolen Dress Goods Week!

We prepare to make this one of the busiest weeks we have ever had since the inauguration of our Great Cut Price Sales. The prices we will make will induce many to buy who are not really needing these goods just at this time, but on account of the great saving select a nice Dress or Skirt and lay away for future use. This is not a clearance sale, neither is it a sale of odds and ends, or old styles we wish to run off, but a sale of fresh, choice up-to-date goods—a sale made for the benefit of our customers. We believe the trade appreciates this offering of one fine of goods each week with all profits off. Every piece of Dress Goods in the house is offered. Here are some of them:

Silk Gloria Cloth,
Mercerized Berber Cloth,
German Surah Cloth,
Black Batiste,
Nun's Veilings,
Black and Colored Lustres,
Black and Colored Crepons,
Plaid Novelties,
Serges, Cashmeres, &c.

The sale begins Monday, June 11th, and lasts one week only.
